

United People of Many Colors
Mission Statement
2007/2008

The United People of Many Colors exists for the purpose of diversity, not only within ourselves but within our community and our world. We strive to learn, appreciate, and understand the many cultures, religions and races that surround and encompass our daily lives. Our goal is to create a united people from all backgrounds by educating and enlightening our community about ourselves with respect to our differences, and our similarities. We stand united and celebrate the many colors of the world.
