

Alumni Bulletin | January 2021

Classes may look a little different with hybrid learning, but that doesn't stop Pennington freshmen Francesca and Tiana from exploring their classroom and admiring the skeleton often used in our forensics classes.

The Pennington community is off and running to start the new year! Check out these recent accolades and achievements that caught our eye and made our hearts fill with Pennington pride! Happy New Year!

Join the Alumni Virtual Workshop: Wine 101

On Friday, January 22, at 8:00 p.m. EST wine expert Ellen Brown will be leading a virtual alumni workshop to help increase your wine IQ! For this BYOW (bring your own wine) gathering, we will provide a list of the wines we will be discussing to registered attendees before the event, but the shopping list is totally optional; you can end with your own favorite wine or beverage on hand.

Alumna Lauren Brown '15 Brings Data to Life for Pennington Students

Earlier this month, featured Applied Science speaker Lauren Brown '15 presented to Pennington students on "Data Versatility: Using Data in Diverse Ways." Brown works as a quantitative data analyst for Cogo Labs, a tech startup incubator in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Impressive Awards for Students Elias Sebti '24 and Aidan Medina '22

Elias Sebti '24 (pictured left) won a delegate award at the virtual Model UN conference this past December, where he and eleven other Pennington students were assigned to represent Iceland and South Africa.

Aidan Medina '22 (pictured right) had his winning photograph included as an official selection in the Drexel University High School Photography Contest.

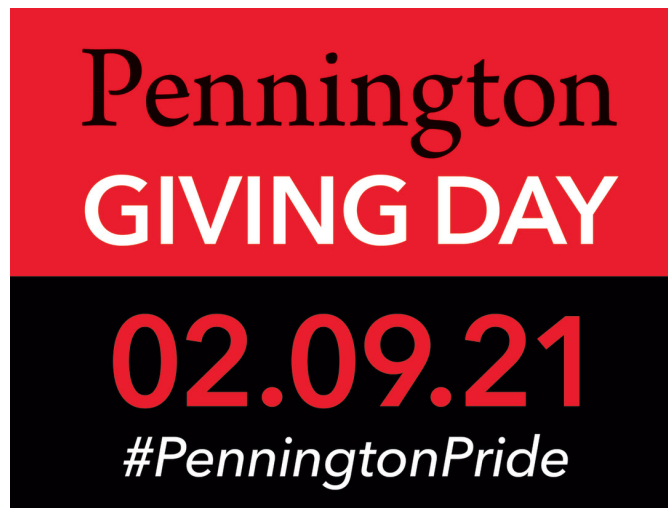

Nicole Baxter '12 Earns Her Place on Pro Team Sky Blue FC

Featured in a recent Trentonian article, former Pennington (and William & Mary) women's soccer star Nicole Baxter '16 recently signed a 2021 contract with Sky Blue FC of the National Women's Soccer League.

Highlights from Holiday Events: Magic, Mixology, and Movie Trivia

Throughout December, alumni gathered virtually for a series of festive holiday events. If you were not able to attend, we wanted to bring some of the "magic" to you and hope you enjoy the highlights video. You can also watch the complete recording of December's impressive career panel, which was offered as part of a program for college-age alumni.
