PENNINGTON, N.J., March 27--- The Pennington School invites you to attend the first annual Mercer Bucks Mini Maker Faire on Sunday, April 8, 2018 from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

A gathering of tech enthusiasts, inventors, Makers, engineers, students, and commercial exhibitors, the Mercer Bucks Mini Maker Faire offers you an opportunity to see creativity and innovation at its best. There will be two TED-style lectures at the Makerfaire: Ricky Solorzano, co-founder and CEO at Allevi, will explain how tissues are created through bio-printing and also what the future holds for bio-manufacturing, and Rebecca Rescate, founder of Rebecca Rescate Brands, will share her experience pitching two of her inventions on ABC's Shark Tank.

Makers who will be in attendance at the event include Rcade Virtual Reality, Brian Patton's Social Robots, Bucks County Drones, Black Rocket Presents, Craig Trader's Chaos Machine, Advanced Solar Products, and many more. There will be sixteen different hands-on activities for kids and adults, including robot programming, painting, creating with 3D pens, and playing in a virtual world.

Maker Faire is a gathering of fascinating, curious people who enjoy learning and who love sharing what they can do. From engineers to artists to scientists to crafters, Maker Faire is a venue for these "makers" to show inventions, experiments, and projects.
