

PENNINGTON DRAMA PRESEASON CAMP

In the spirit of the varsity-level sports camps, the Pennington School Drama program is offering a preseason camp in preparation for this year's Fall Play. Those interested in participating in the Fall Play as an actor, technician, or costumer may take part in a nonresidential camp on Saturday, August 25, and Sunday, August 26. Housing may be available to boarding students; please contact Ms. Suzanne Houston to make arrangements.

The camp will focus on the necessary skills of an actor and technical designer for Pennington productions, specifically with the Fall Play in mind. The camp will prepare the minds, bodies, and spirits of interested theatre artists to tackle the audition and rehearsal process, historical background, and design of the show. It will also encourage teamwork and collaboration, which is the hallmark of our program. Students of all experience levels are welcome; not all students may be cast in the production, but participation on one of the technical crews is guaranteed.

No student will participate in camp until all financial obligations have been met and all required school forms have been submitted. Forms are due no later than July 1 and can be found by logging in to your Magnus Health account. No student will be allowed to attend camp unless all required forms are approved. There will be no exceptions.

Camp Registration and Schedules

Registration for Drama preseason will take place on Saturday, August 25, at 9:00 a.m. behind the Campus Center near the entrance to the McLarty "Black Box" Theater. The camp will be held from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, August 25, and continue from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. on Sunday, August 26. There will be an optional theatre trip on Sunday afternoon for a fee. Sessions will be held in the Black Box.

Participating students need to wear comfortable clothing that they can move in, and bring sneakers, a snack, a water bottle, a pencil, and their iPad.
